9. Oakleaf (1970 aerial of abandoned Branan Field)

“During WW2, the Navy acquired property owned by Alvord and Mary Branan in support of operations at NAS Jacksonville and Cecil Field. By 1941, preliminary plans for Outlying Field L or Branan Field had been developed. At its height, the circular airfield featured four 4,000-foot runways to train Navy pilots. Most of the preliminary training for the US Navy Flight Demonstration Squadron, now known as the Blue Angels, took place at Branan Field. Branan Field was abandoned around 1949. Up until the development of Oakleaf Village in 2001, the site remained virtually untouched.”
